ORDER:

Government with a view to facilitating faster socio economic growth of the girl children and to further empower the women, have enacted Andhra Pradesh Bangaru Talli Girl Child Promotion and Empowerment Act, 2013 providing therewith financial incentives on achieving certain milestones in the lift of girl children born in the State and issued guidelines in the G.O. 2nd and 3rd above.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the Chief Executive Officer, Society for Elimination of Rural Poverty (SERP) has stated that in the earlier discussions had with the Principal Secretary, Women Development & Child Welfare Department and officials of SERP regarding modifications in Bangaruthalli scheme, the Secretary, WCD has opined that the role of APM can be assigned to the CDPO and necessary application developed can be transferred to the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare Department with proper orientation about the systems by SERP team. The Chief Executive Officer, SERP has further stated that, with the experience had in implementation of Bangaruthalli since May-1, 2013, it was felt appropriate to keep the implementation responsibility also with the Nodal Agency i.e. Department of WD & CW, who is responsible for release of funds from the Government as it was difficult to submit necessary details required for the A.G. audit team; that the role of SERP can be limited to the necessary social mobilization to bring awareness about the details of the scheme and encourage all the eligible families to get their girl Child enrolled.

3. In the circumstances stated above, the Chief Executive Officer, SERP has requested the Government to transfer the implementation responsibility of Bangaruthalli to the Department of Women Development and Child Welfare Department being the nodal Department for the said scheme, as they already had the experience in implementation of Girl Child Protection scheme (GCPS) and monitoring of Scheme during the year 2014-15 and requested to take necessary action in the matter.

4. Government after careful examination of the proposal of Chief Executive Officer, SERP, Hyderabad and in consultation with the Women Development & Child Welfare Department i.e. the nodal Agency of the scheme hereby transfer the responsibility of implementation of Bangaruthalli scheme to be renamed as Maa Inti Mahalakshmi to the Women Development & Child Welfare Department so as to enable their Department to have close follow up of pregnant women and make impact on girl child and gender sensitization, moreover their Department had experience in implementation of Girl Child Protection scheme (GCPS).

5. The Women Development & Child Welfare Department is requested to take immediate further necessary action in the matter accordingly.
